

2022 NOTICE OF ANNUAL REVIEW OPEN MEETING

On August 18, 2022, the Automobile Insurance Rate Board (AIRB) will be conducting its Annual Review on the state of the automobile insurance industry in Alberta. This year the open meeting will be taking place virtually by video conference on Zoom.

This open meeting will include presentations by the AIRB's consulting actuary, the AIRB Consumer Representative, and various industry stakeholders.

The AIRB will also be taking comments from stakeholders. These comments will inform the AIRB's 2022 Industry Benchmark Schedule for private passenger vehicles, and be used in the review of insurer filings to change their automobile insurance rating programs for basic and additional coverage.

August 18, 2022
Zoom Video Conference

To Participate in the Annual Review, There are 4 Ways:

1. As an Observer:

If you would like to attend the Annual Review as an observer, register by emailing the AIRB by July 27, 2022.

1. By Presentation:

Make a presentation to the AIRB at the open meeting. Interested parties must email a letter of intent to the AIRB by July 6, 2022, followed by a written submission emailed to the AIRB by July 27, 2022.

2. By Written Submission:

Share your comments on the Alberta automobile insurance industry experience through a written submission emailed to the AIRB by July 27, 2022.

3. By Contacting the Consumer Representative:

Share your concerns by email regarding automobile insurance premiums with the Consumer Representative by July 27, 2022.

To attend as an observer, make a presentation, provide a written submission, or contact the Consumer Representative, contact the AIRB at:

Automobile Insurance Rate Board

#2440, Canadian Western Bank Place
10303 Jasper Avenue
Edmonton, AB T5J 3N6

Email: airb@gov.ab.ca

airb.alberta.ca

About AIRB

The AIRB vision is for automobile insurance to be accessible, equitable and sustainable for all Albertans. Our mandate is to regulate automobile insurance rating programs in Alberta. No insurer may charge a premium unless it is based on an approved rating program.